

Types & Shadows

JOURNAL OF THE FELLOWSHIP OF QUAKERS IN THE ARTS

Issue #24, WINTER 2001-2002

---

the powers speak:

i a
a t
m e t b
h e
e h
a t
l d
p n
h a
a

remember pearl harbor for now is the time for americans to stand up and be counted we shall not be intimidated fellow americans let us begin this historic and long overdue crusade resolving to eradicate dissent from the earth make the world understand that our government will not be toyed with that what has happened is not to be tolerated the american people must rise up as one we must speak as one united voice in no uncertain terms we say remember the alamo let other nations dread our might for we are first among the countries of the world and we intend to stay that way we have to defend our privilege and the outrage americans suffered last tuesday will be repaid a hundred times over at once with all the smartest latest deadliest weapons in our arsenal for our innocent blood is on someone else's hands no matter whose whoever does not support total war may be assumed guilty and will be made to pay we know god is on our side it is time to fight terror with terror and remove the traitorous peaceniks who threaten our freedoms our all-consuming American way of life all true patriots are blind to what isnt on tv theres no room here for lily-livered arrogance remember the maine

— Esther Greenleaf Mürer, Central Philadelphia MM
November 2001

---

Contents of this page are copyright by the authors or artists. All rights reserved.

Types & Shadows is published quarterly by the Fellowship of Quakers in the Arts. Subscriptions are available through membership in the FQA.

This page added January 2002